

I am in favor for ALL VRS services and equipment as well D-Link and others should be compatible and should not "block" for only certain service and equipment users.... and should be free to contact whatever service and equipment providers....